

Meet the Entrepreneurs in Global Health 2021

The initiative Entrepreneurs in Global Health highlights ideas with the potential to revolutionize healthcare and improve global health. The cooperation between World Health Summit, Stiftung Charité and the Berlin Institute of Health \(BIH\) will bring these six startups to the global health stage at the World Health Summit 2021:

Monday, October 25, 1:00 – 1:45 pm (CET), digital only

The link for participation will be available on www.worldhealthsummit.org

Cytochroma Ltd., Edinburgh, Scotland, UK

Entrepreneur: Kate Cameron

Product: Automated technology to generate stem cell derived liver cells that model human physiology and accurately identify liver-based toxicity.

Dermotech GmbH, Bad Homburg, Germany

Entrepreneur: Gregor Heinecke

Product: UV-free blue light irradiation for the therapy of atopic eczema, psoriasis, acne vulgaris.

HT BioImaging, Ganei Am, Israel

Entrepreneur: Shani Toledano

Product: HDI (Heat Diffusion Imaging) scan, which translates the heat diffusion signal into an image to enable early detection of cancer in a non-invasive and real-time procedure.

IDTM GmbH | INKA-IGTLAB, Castrop-Rauxel, Germany

Entrepreneur: Rutuja Salvi

Product: BODYTUNE mobile auscultation measurement device is designed to enable decentralized and uncomplicated analysis of the carotid flow profile.

Nephrolytix Project, Berlin, Germany

Entrepreneur: Bartosz Kosmecki

Product: AKIx Rapid Detection of Acute Kidney Injury, an easy-to-use tool for rapid and precise kidney function measurement.

Waire Health, Edinburgh, Scotland, UK

Entrepreneur: Dave Hurhangee

Product: Advanced medical wearable to monitor several vital signs with AI.

